Prayer Highlights

New EMF missionaries in Portugal

It's a joy to be welcoming two new missionary couples into EMF, both serving in Portugal: Joel & Talita Lopes (pictured left), in Faro in the south of the country, and Diego and Stella Lopes (pictured below) in Lisbon, leading a church plant in the city to the south of the river. Both men, who are not related even though sharing their surname, are also involved in the Martin Bucer Reformed Theological Seminary. Please pray for the Lord to use these families greatly in the cause of the gospel. To find out more, visit our website.

Don't think we can come ... we have never done zoom before!

A few months ago, our magazine 'A vision for Europe' was dedicated to members of our EMF family who, while still serving the Lord, have officially retired; and we recently held an online get-together for these good folk. For some of the around 40 people who came on screen, this was their first ever Zoom meeting! There were smiles on the faces of each person as they recognised old friends and felt the love of those with whom they had shared precious moments in the past. Thank the Lord for the faithful ministry of these EMF missionaries and staff, over many years. Please ask the Lord to sustain them. To read more, visit our website.

Missionary Focus

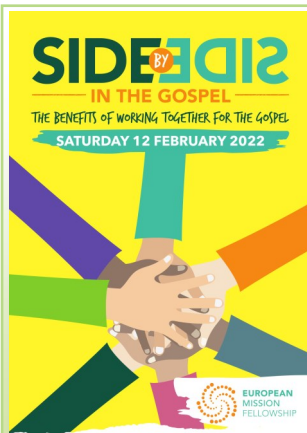

Our focus this month is on new EMF Missionaries, Diego and Stella Lopes. They are based in Lisbon, Portugal, where Diego leads the newly-formed evangelical church in Margem Sul (trans. South Bank), to the south of the river Tagus. Diego is from Brazil, and has ministered in both South Africa and Canada before moving to Portugal. Stella is Portuguese, but has spent many years in South Africa. In addition to pastoring the church in Margem Sul, Diego also acts as the Executive Coordinator of the newly-formed Martin Bucer reformed theological seminary.

Particular matters for prayer:

- For a larger place to meet with rooms for Sunday school etc.
- For the Martin Bucer seminary, with the advanced theological training course beginning in September 2022
- For the development of the leadership of the church in Margem Sul.
- For Diego & Stella and their family - Diogo, David and Esther.
